

Information for Applicants

Transnational Law and Business University (TLBU) is a unique post-graduate educational organization seeking to educate future leaders of Asia. All students in our Masters and Doctorate programs have been selected among the top-rated law school graduates from East Asian countries. Full scholarship including tuition fees, field studies and other expenses, are provided by TLBU for the entire duration of the students' study except certain amount of shares towards the accommodations*.

TLBU Global system consists of the TLBU Graduate School of Law in Seoul which opened in 2001, the TLBU Institute in Paris established in 2002, TLBU Foundation in NY ·NJ Area that began its operation in 2012. We are also preparing for law firm and other educational and research institutes in this area. Since its establishment in 2001, TLBU has produced alumni reaching 500 who are currently working in academic and practical fields in various part of the world. Some excellent students have been selected to study in Paris and United States.

Our students currently enrolled for Master's and PH D. courses are from China, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar, Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Japan and Korea. They are studying and living in a friendly family-like environment and are committed to the development and cooperation of their countries. All the classes are conducted in English by committed and experienced teaching staff.

In addition to an intensive curriculum of public and private international legal study as well as our unique Personal virtue and character program, the students have chances, during field studies, to visit international organizations and international courts in Paris, Geneva, The Hague and Brussels, where students have chance to acquire practical knowledge on international law.

For the 2015 program, TLBU continues to invite possible candidates from East Asian countries who meet the qualifications. Applications for admission should be received at TLBU no later than December 31, 2014. Interviews and tests will be conducted via internet by TLBU representatives in early January, 2015. Successful candidates will join the intensive two year Master of Laws program at TLBU Graduate School of Law in Seoul beginning at the early of September, 2015.

 Please note that $2,000 of share out of $11,000 towards accommodation(and meals) for two years of study in total of is expected to be paid by the applicants before the beginning of Academic year in September, 2015. Remaining amount shall be deferred for 5 years from the admission. Please contact Academic Affairs Office for details and assistance. For other information regarding admission please visit our website(www.tlbu.ac.kr) .*